In lieu of our usual monthly meeting, the Club held its annual holiday dinner at the Yangtze River Restaurant in Littleton.

An enjoyable evening was had by all.

We had a full house with 29 members along with their guests.

Please see the attached photos.

There was no snowstorm that evening. Surprise! Surprise!

Al Hicks, KD1D, in his festive red vest and black top hat, was our emcee for the Yankee Swap.

The many toys in the swap made the rounds of the tables.

KD1D ended the evening with his delightful ham interpretation of the poem, 'Twas the Night Before Christmas.

Everyone have a great and healthy holiday season.

Be good to a new person, laugh and smile!
